Description:

1 large brick of terracotta decorative material, possibly a rim fragment of a large vessel or an architectural decoration. Section is heavily encrusted, very large on top which is flat grading down to a very small bottom, below a definite lip-ridge, which is broken off. The paste beneath the encrustation, as well as the core, is a brownish-red color with many small inclusions. Facing the decorated side (or front), both sides are broken off as is part or all of the rear. The decoration is as on a frieze, with 3-dimensional grapes and grape leaves, possible bulls' heads, and other indistinguishable motifs.
