Donations to the University of Alaska Museum are tax deductible to the extent allowed by law. The Museum does not appraise any donations. It is the responsibility of the donor to make arrangements for appraisals. Should the donor wish the Museum to sign the IRS documents regarding the gift, a copy of the appraisal with values must be filed with the Museum.

Exhibition of any object is entirely at the discretion of the Museum. Objects not on public display are generally available for study by scholars, researchers, and students.

*If less than all copyright, trademark, and related interests are given, specify above.
