

DEED OF GIFT

OBJECTS AND DESCRIPTION

Fourteen specimens of Cixius meridionalis are donated to UAM. Corresponding UAM:Ento records have already been created, so you should be able to scan them in after they have gone through the freezer.

I / We affirm that I/we own such objects, have obtained them through legal means, and to the best of my/our knowledge, this property has not been imported/exported contrary to the laws of this or the originating country.

I / We affirm that I / We, to the best of my / our knowledge, have good and complete right, title, and interests (including all transferred copyright, trademark, and related interests*) to give.

I / We, sole owners of the following listed and described property, do hereby give to the University of Alaska Museum of the North by way of gift, absolute and unconditional ownership of the property, together with all copyright, trademark, and related interests* in all media by any means or method now known or hereafter invented, listed above.

Donations to the University of Alaska Museum are tax deductible to the extent allowed by law. The Museum does not appraise any donations. It is the responsibility of the donor to make arrangements for appraisals. Should the donor wish the Museum to sign the IRS documents regarding the gift, a copy of the appraisal with values must be filed with the Museum.

Exhibition of any object is entirely at the discretion of the Museum. Objects not on public display are generally available for study by scholars, researchers, and students.

*If less than all copyright, trademark, and related interests are given, specify above.
