

Received from Mrs. Francis Bowden (donor)

of Box 800, Anchorage, Alaska 99510 (address) (city) (state)

on this 23 day of July, 1971, the materials described below, the same being conveyed by the said Mrs. Francis Bowden (donor)

to the University of Alaska Museum as an unrestricted gift, and the property of the said institution.

Description of material as follows:

UA71-28-1 8"x10" glossy photograph of William Yanert standing in front of his cabin; black wooden frame; inscription on back of photo: "Wm. Yanert, at age 65. From a snapshot given to Mrs. Francis Bowden."

-2ab Poem, entitled: "How the year rolls by at 'Purgatory' " Typewritten; purple ribbon; mounted on two separate pieces of gray construction paper; -2a has two sheets of paper mounted, and -2b has one. The latter, which contains the ending of the poem, is signed by Yanert.

-3 Poem, entitled: "Grumblebumble!" Handwritten on sheet of ruled writing paper, mounted on gray construction paper; On either side of the poem - left: two owls sitting on a tree, right: one owl sitting on a tree; Owls and trees glued onto paper containing poem.

Donor's signature Mrs. Francis Bowden

Accepted by F. Rowland

Director

*sent to archives
4 May 1973
Duf*

UA 71-28

UNIVERSITY

OF ALASKA

TO:

DATE:

Mrs/m Francis Borden
~~Mrs/m Frances Borden~~

~~Mr Francis~~ 1928
 met Yanest

Mus 1926

Box 800

1928 came to AK

Amburge, 99510

1. photo of Wm Yanest
2. Poem about 12 mo of the
3. Year by Yanest
- 4.
5. Poem. Grumblebumble!