

Modern Alaskan Native Material Culture Project
University of Alaska Museum
June 23, 1970

OBJECTS PURCHASED OR OBSERVED

UA70-50-10

recording date 8-19-70 observer FITZ field catalog number if purchased PF#10 ethnic group _____ language ESK place Shiikmaref informant: name ARVID OLANA age 60 place of birth EKPIEK object class _____ object name in English steering extension object name in aboriginal language and translation of the term "AK-60-IN" general information about the object: 1. material or materials; where, when, and how obtained:

2. construction steps: 3. variations in construction: 4. made by whom, where, when, owned by whom: 5. uses, length of life: 6. other comments

Drift Wood      Seal      Plastic Skin      Hose
Rope

Used on the steering handle of an outboard motor - permits
person to stand in boat
and look for seals while driving the motor at the same time