

Ivory holder -

PT
70-50-14

Ivory handle - 2 nails set in bottom -
used for holding piece of bracelet while carver is working on it -

2 3/8"

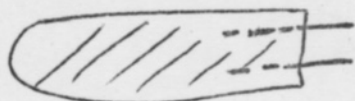

Modern Alaskan Native Material Culture Project
University of Alaska Museum
June 23, 1970

OBJECTS PURCHASED OR OBSERVED

JA70-50-14

recording date 8-14-70 observer FITZ field catalog number if purchased PF#14
ethnic group _____ language ESK place Shilmaref informant: name BURT KUZUGUK age _____ place of birth _____ object class _____ object name in English HOLDER object name in aboriginal language and translation of the term _____

general information about the object: 1. material or materials; where, when, and how obtained:
2. construction steps: 3. variations in construction: 4. made by whom, where, when, owned by whom: 5. uses, length of life: 6. other comments

 NAILS
IVORY

Used to hold ivory bracelet part while sanding and polishing