

Musk rat retriever

70-50-16AB

Gourd-shaped piece of drift wood c 4
nails set in around - hole at top broken - piece of wire used to hold rope on - cord attached to rope - wound around wooden reel + painted white + Daygls orange one side - flashing

float - 5' 2"

reel - 8 3/4"

Coined on -

"~~May 1951~~ May 19, 1951

By F.P.

MUSK

"Rat Getter"

46 to 50 OK

Modern Alaskan Native Material Culture Project
University of Alaska Museum
July 17, 1970

OBJECTS PURCHASED OR OBSERVED

UA70-50-16

recording date 8-19-70 observer FITZ field catalog number if purchased PF16

ethnic group _____ language ESK place SELAWICK informant: name RAY P SKIN age 61 place of birth "

object class _____ object name in English MUSKRAT HOOK object name in aboriginal language and translation of the term _____

general information about the object: 1. material or materials; where, when and how obtained:
2. construction steps: 3. variations in construction: 4. made by whom, where, when, owned by whom: 5. uses, length of life: 6. other comments

see notes

