

Fish hook

PF
70-50-18

Brass body - cut to resemble fish - washed nail hook - loop of baler hoard c. wire - tiny piece of purple cotton where it joins brass

brass -  $2\frac{3}{8}$ "

total -  $4\frac{1}{2}$ "

Modern Alaskan Native Material Culture Project
University of Alaska Museum
July 17, 1970

UA70-50-18

OBJECTS PURCHASED OR OBSERVED

Recording date 8-19-70 observer FITZ field catalog number if purchased PF#18
Ethnic group _____ language _____ place SELAWICK Informant: name RAY P SKIN age 61 place of birth "
Subject class _____ object name in English FISH HOOK
Subject name in aboriginal language and translation of the term _____

General information about the object: 1. material or materials; where, when and how obtained:
2. construction steps: 3. variations in construction: 4. made by whom, where, when, owned by whom: 5. uses, length of life: 6. other comments

Brass