RESEARCH PERMIT - ACADEMIC

Permit Number: 14FW128

Under the authority of the Wildlife Act and the Regulations thereunder, permission is hereby granted

To: KURT GALBREATH NORTHERN MICHIGAN UNIVERSITY (NMI)
Given Name Surname AKA

of 1401 PRESQUE ISLE AVE MARQUETTE MI 49855
Street/Box Number City/Town Prov/State Postal Code

To: Conduct the Research Project: Comparative phylogeography of northern mammals and their parasites. See map, attached, for project location.

Specifically, this research permit authorizes the following activities on small mammals including, but not limited to mice, voles, lemmings, chipmunks, squirrels, lagomorphs and shrews:

Use traps (e.g. snap, pit and Sherman) to capture a variety of small mammals in major habitat types. Collect approximately 10 to 40 individuals per common species per locality. All captured animals will be humanely euthanized and necropsied. Morphometric and reproductive data will be collected and skeletons, tissues, ectoparasites and endoparasites will be preserved for future research. The goal is to provide a database of specimen records for documenting and interpreting biotic change resulting from profound climate change in high-latitude environments. Collected specimens will provide the basis for numerous ongoing studies regarding the diversity, ecology, and evolution of northern mammals and their parasites. Specimens will be archived in either the University of New Mexico's Museum of Southwestern Biology or Northern Michigan University's Museum of Zoology.

In addition to Standard Permit Conditions, attached, the following conditions apply:

General:

This permit is valid for the permittee, Kurt Galbreath and designates only and must be carried at all times while conducting any of the work authorized by it. Designates include Heather Toman, Genevieve Haas, Shaley Valentine, and Emily Jenkins (University of Saskatchewan).

Advise Ministry of Environment Field Offices in La Ronge (306-425-4234), Southend (306-758-6255), and Stony Rapids (306-439-2062) as to when you intend to be working in their area;

This permit expires on 2014-September-30
