S2AQUA related records from these sources are useful for data discovery, however they must be verified against the S2AQUA-Biobank Arctos database, which contains the most up-to-date information.

(3) Use of Third-Party Content: If the Content provided by S2AQUA-Biobank includes copyrighted content from third parties (“Third-Party Content”), you agree to use such Third-Party Content only in compliance with the copyright law. S2AQUA does not guarantee that any use of Third-Party Content will not infringe upon the rights of the content owners.

(4) Disclaimer of Warranties/Limitation of Liability: S2AQUA provides the Content free of charge and disclaims all warranties to the fullest extent permitted by law (express, implied, or otherwise). This includes (but is not limited to) implied warranties of merchantability, fitness for a particular purpose, and non-infringement.
